

Sherrill-King Mill and Lumber Company

We are a new industry, organized March, 1906, to do a general saw mill business. We employ 50 skilled mechanics and laborers. We wholesale all of our product, but solicit your patronage in a retail way through Sherrill-Russell Lumber Company, to whom we have contracted to do their saw milling. We manufacture into lumber all the local woods and can cut anything you may want in timbers or boards from 4 feet to 44 feet long. We invite you to visit our new plant on Meyers street in Mechanicsburg.

SHERRILL-RUSSELL LUMBER CO.

WE guess you know us. If not let's get acquainted. Our main office is located at Eleventh and Tennessee Streets; our electrical equipped planing mill Eleventh and Jones streets; our main ware room at Eleventh and Tennessee streets; our unloading tation Fourteenth and Tennessee streets; our saw mill Meyers street, Mechanicsburg; our yards and warerooms No. 2 at Fourteenth and Tennessee streets. At each of the above named places you will find a competent manager who will welcome and find pleasure in serving you. Consider: First, our equipment and ability to serve you; second, our stock, which is the largest and best assorted in the country; third, our prices, which are always in line. Then: If we cannot have your patronage, tell us our faults and we will correct them. Our planing mill and saw mill are running every day. We can furnish as cheap or as fine a class of all kind of building material as you can find in any city. Interior finish in any wood, detail work of any character given our special attention. We respectfully solicit your patronage.

PIGEON GAME

COST EDDYVILLE NEGRO $4.50
LAST NIGHT.

Finder of Purse Offered to Divide $100
Takes Rucker's Money and Goes for Change.

W. L. Rucker, an Eddyville negro, played the "pigeon" is $4.50 "shy" today because he agreed to divide a $100 bill with two strange negroes who pretended to have found the money. He placed the matter in the hands of the police who are now at work on the case.

Rucker came here to attend the funeral of his brother, Alex Rucker, who died yesterday morning. He was walking out Kentucky avenue near Sixth street about dusk last evening when a strange negro walking in front of him stooped and picked up a pocketbook. He was in the act of opening it when a negro just behind Rucker, who evidently had seen the "find," spoke up and demanded a "divvy." The finder of the purse agreed, but the pocketbook contained a $100 bill.

Rucker was brought into the game and offered a third of the money if he would keep "closed" about the find. He readily agreed and the three began searching for change. It was too late for banks and Rucker offered his $4.50. This was not enough, and inviting Rucker to await their return with the change the two made off.

Rucker is still looking for his money and the police for the two negroes whom Rucker thinks he will recognize if he sees them again.

Jury Disagree.

The jury in the case of Boss Galbraith, alleged mob leader, at Springfield, Mo., yesterday reported its failure to agree. Only two jurors favored conviction.

Beaten By Footpads.

Eugene Weaver a prominent Allen county man, was beaten insensible and robbed while returning from a church near Scottsville and is in a serious condition.

RIVER NEWS

River Stages.
Cairo	22.2	0.3	fall
Chattanooga	6.4	0.1	fall
Cincinnati	16.2	0.4	fall
Evansville	13.8	0.2	fall
Florence	4.5	0.4	fall
Johnsonville	7.2	0.2	fall
Louisville	7.0	0.1	fall
Mt. Carmel	2.8	0.0	std
Nashville	9.6	0.3	rise
Pittsburg	4.1	0.3	fall
Davis Island Dam	6.1	0.5	fall
St. Louis	10.3	0.5	fall
Mt. Vernon	13.0	0.2	fall
Paducah	12.3	0.4	fall

The river is falling here now and probably will continue to do so until the middle of September when, if it follows its course of last year, it will begin to rise and go to a higher stage than the highest this month, 12.8. The gauge registered a stage of 12.3 this morning, a fall of .4 in the last 24 hours. According to river men, there has been a towboat stage of water out of Pittsburg every month in the last two years. This is something unknown in the history of the rivers previously. The coal shippers calculate on a rise every month, and so far they have gotten it. Last September a stage of 15 feet was reached. The Jim Wood passed up this morning from Cairo with a tow of 18 empties. Estimating conservatively that there are fifteen carloads of coal to a barge, the tow of coal the Tom Reese carried down Thursday of 22 barges, would make 330 carloads. With 22 cars to the freight train, it would have required 15 train loads of coal to bring it here by rail. The crews on these trains largely would outnumber the men employed in bringing the tow down the river.

There will be one "scursion" Sunday. The George Cowling will go to Cairo for a local lodge.

The John Hopkins was the Evansville packet today. None tomorrow. The City of Saltillo will arrive from St. Louis Sunday on the up trip to the Tennessee river.

The Dick Fowler had a good passenger trip this morning to Cairo and way points.

The Kentucky arrived from Joppa yesterday evening and will leave this evening at 6 o'clock for the Tennessee river.

The Henry Harley is expected to come here the first week in September from the upper Cumberland river. There are only light repairs to be made on the Harley.

The Woolford was expected up from Cairo today with a tow of empties.

The Lydia did not get away until today for the Tennessee river.

The Buttorff will leave Nashville this afternoon at 5 o'clock and arrive here Sunday night. Monday at noon the Buttorff will leave for Clarksville.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville will remain nearly stationary or fall slowly during the next 24 to 36 hours. From Mt. Vernon to Cairo, will continue falling during the next several days.

The Tennessee at Florence will continue falling. At Johnsonville, will remain nearly stationary during the next 24 hours.

The Mississippi, from Chester to Cairo, will continue falling during the next several days.

Monument to a Pig.

"Did you ever see a monument to a pig?" said an invalid.

"No."

"Well, there is such a monument in existence. The town of Luneberg, in Hanover, owns it. It stands in the town hall—a glass case containing an embalmed ham from the pig, together with a great slab of black marble, engraved with letters of gold.

"Luneberg is a rich town and famous through its salt springs. A pig discovered these springs. To this pig the monument was put up. The golden inscription says, in Latin: 'Stranger, contemplate here the mortal remains of the pig which acquired for itself imperishable glory by the discovery of the salt springs of Luneberg."—New Orleans Times Democrat.

Following Instructions.

"Gracious man!" exclaims the doctor when Mr. Glubbins calls him in a hurry. "Your temperature is rioting along near the danger point, and you—"

"And I'm worse off than I ever was before" all through the diet you prescribed."

"Impossible, Mr. Glubbins. I told you distinctly to confine yourself to such foods as would be taken by a three-year-old child."

"And didn't I follow orders? I ate apple cores and dog biscuits and ends of burnt matches and scraps of potato peeling and everything else I could pick up while no one was looking—and here I am pretty near dead!"

Hastily reflecting upon the gastronomical tendencies of the average three-year-old child, the doctor tells Mr. Glubbins that he has been overdoing the diet, and will have to subsist on soft toast and hot water for a week. —Life.

Unconvincing.

Upton Sinclair, the famous young novelist, was talking to Princeton about America's more notorious and vicious corporations.

"The men who own these corporations don't regard themselves," he said, "as scoundrels, as vile and pitiless scoundrels. Somehow they deceive themselves into thinking that they are good business men, public benefactors who put bread into the mouths of thousands of poor folk."

"Their reasoning is altogether jumbled, illogical, idiotic, unconvincing. It is like the reasoning of the boy with the toothache."

"This boy, beside himself with toothache, muttered, as he started for the dentist's with his hand to his cheek: "

"Maybe it'll ease up some by the time I get in the chair. If it does, I'll pretend I want a haircut."

Charles Hercules Read, keeper of antiquities of the British museum and successor of the late Sir Wellesley Franks, has sailed from Queenstown for America.
